INTRODUCTION

The Pompei & Company stained glass studio was founded in 1979, as an avocation of Joseph Pompei. The Pompei studio and showroom has been located in a suburb city of Boston MA since its inception 28 years ago. In 1981 Joseph was joined by his wife, Ivy Pompei, as a full time partner.

Joseph & Ivy Pompei

Inspired by the timeless beauty of arts and crafts architects, designers and stained glass artists such as Frank Lloyd Wright, William Morris, Gustav Stickley, Greene & Greene and others, Joseph Pompei has drawn upon his 30 plus years experience as an stained glass artisan to create a series of custom limited edition stained glass windows which capture the essence of the mission and prairie styles, while incorporating Pompei's unique stylistic thumbprint.

Each piece is custom fabricated in our Massachusetts studio , signed and dated by Joseph Pompei, and made to order taking into account your size, color and privacy needs.

As committed artisans, the pursuit of excellence is reflected in all their own commissions.

It is precisely this commitment, along with their talent and skill as artisans, plus 30 years of experience which sets the Pompeis apart from most other glass studios. We invite you to experience this difference with a visit to the Pompei studio in person or on-line at www.pompeiglass.com

PRICING GUIDE

Price is a function of two factors - size, which is computed in square feet, and design detail. Additionally, we discount based upon the number of panels you order. To compute your cost, take the height and width of your window. Find the price table which corresponds to the price group of the design you are pricing. Then simply match the height and width of your window to the appropriate chart.

Example: To price the Wainwright House design in a size of 14-1/2" x 42-3/8" use Price Table A. The width of 14-1/2" inches is greater than the 12" table, so refer to the next highest column, 18". Similarly, the height is computed using the 48" row. Cost for this design in your size is $875.00, plus crating & shipping
